GROWERS RECEIVE VALUABLE LETTER FROM C. C. TEAGUE

LEMON PRODUCTION EXCEEDS DEMAND OF CONSUMERS

Upland Lemon Growers' Association Develops Excellent Business Along Pacific Coast and Canada

All lemon growers belonging to the California Fruit Growers Exchange in this vicinity have received an interesting letter from C. C. Teague, president of the Exchange, giving information in regard to the lemon situation at the present time. He calls attention to what might be termed the overproduction of lemons this year and that present indications for next year's crop point to a similar surplus. Only 75 per cent of lemons now being picked are shipped into the markets; the balance, made up of the lower grades, are shipped to Corona.

All growers are urged to stand by the "lemon men's agreement" adopted last spring to limit number of cars shipped so that a reasonable price might be secured to the growers for their best grades. Independent shippers are seeking to break down this agreement and if they succeed, Mr. Teague points out, the market will be demoralized by an oversupply and neither the independent or the Exchange growers will receive prices sufficient to cover cost of production and shipping.

The present surplus is caused largely by many acres of lemons planted some ten or twelve years ago coming into bearing and also by the unprecedented crop set on all trees last fall followed by unusually favorable weather during the maturing of the crop.

The Upland Lemon Growers Association has succeeded this year in developing an extensive and profitable market along the Pacific Coast, throughout the northwestern states and Canada. Steady shipments have been going forward to this territory all summer, part of it by water which lowers transportation rates contransfer trucks take the fruit to the harbor where it is loaded on the boats of the Admiral Line.

The same conditions that have brought about the large crop this year and the difficulty in marketing it satisfactorily may not occur again for a long term of years. Lemon trees, like orange trees, when they become unprofitable, are torn out to make way for new subdivisions or other development.

CANYON ROAD IS NEARING OPENING

The $8,000 project for graveling of the Carbon Canyon highway, preparatory to paving later is nearing completion, according to C. M. Craw, in charge of the work for the county.

Installation of culverts and grading was completed some weeks ago by a Santa Ana contractor. No definite plans are prepared yet for paving, Craw stated. The present job calls for surfacing from near Chino to the Orange county line, a distance of about four miles.

Paving will establish the highway as one of the trunk ways for motor travel between the western end of San Bernardino county on the one hand and Orange county and the southern beaches on the other.

He admits that he compelled Russo to give him $39, but that he used a bottle and not a gun. persuade Russo to pay him his alleged debt.

"The Wise Guy," the picture which the Upland Business and Professional Women's Club have secured through the courtesy of A. M. Fielding, manager of the Colonial Theatre, for the nights of November 2 and 3, is one of the most powerful stories that Frank Lloyd, the director,, has ever brought to the screen. It concerns a faking evangelist who becomes converted to his own hypocritical words and "gets" religion in spite of himself. James Kirkwood and Betty Compson have the leading roles in the picture .

The proceeds from the two performances will be used by the Club women for the upkeep o the Community Cottage and the members of the Club are hoping to crowd the Theatre on both nights.

Mrs. R. B. Campbell has charge of the ticket sale but tickets can be purchased from any member of the club.

Pomona and Berdoo Win Midget Games

In yesterday's lightweight games in the C. B. L., Pomona beat Riverside at the latter's grounds in a hard-fought game, the score being 7 to 0. A Card fumble when in the Bears' territory cost them another score as they had been advancing the ball right down the field. This was their first win, as they lost to the Desert Rats a week ago 13 to 0.

In the other game San Berdoo trimmed Redlands 23 to 0. Most of the scoring was done in the first quarter, the Desert Rats catching Redlands asleep and scored 20 points before they woke up. The balance of the game was a real scrap. San Berdoo having to drop-kick for the other 3 points, and their goal was in danger several times.

DIST. GOVERNOR OF LIONS GUEST OF LOCAL CLUB

SYCAMORES SCENE OF LADIES' NIGHT LAST EVENING

District Governor Strei and Mrs. Strei Honored Guests at Delightful Banquet, Followed By Dancing

District Governor "Bill" Strei and his enthusiastic wife were guests of honor at the Lions Club meeting yesterday, and Ladies night was substituted instead of the regular luncheon to do justice to the occasion. With the District Governor also was Lion "Bill" Tudor of the San Francisco den who has been accompanying him on his visits to the clubs of the fourth district.

Len Fowler, president of the Ontario den, Arthur Hargraves Clark Roloff were there also to give welcome.

Baby Lion Fred Williams mad his first appearance at the club and had the unusual honor of being welcomed into the club by th district governor, and Preside "Ray" pointed out the fact that two out of three of the unmarried members had found worthy help mates since joining the club and the members were all ready and willing to assist the new member by all means in their power to a similar happy consummation..

President Len Fowler of the Ontario den responded to an invitation from the chair and spoke about the spirit of inter club control, and mentioned a particular case in which there was no Lion club in the town and a Junior Lions club was to be organized the club was sponsored by the Rotarians and Kiwanis clubs together.

Visiting guest "Bill" Tudor spoke a few words of appreciation of what Lionism had done and was doing; and the meeting was turned over to the district governor who spoke feelingly o his enthusiasm for the work to which he had been called and his vision of what could be done by a body of men organized along strictly unselfish lines and inspired by the undying principles of the Golden Rule.

Mr. and Mrs. "Baldy" Moore, whose recent nuptials were a society event, shared honors with the District Governor and in the name of the club were presented with a charming gift, as a token of the regard with which they are regarded by their fellow Lions Norman Lawson in a few well chosen words made the presentation.

Outstanding in the evening's festivities which featured dancing and card playing, were the moving pictures of the San Francis Convention scenes. These pictures which featured a motor tour of Northern California and Southern Oregon, depicted scenes great beauty. Scenes along waterways and the beautiful forests were brought out with great beauty. These pictures were loaned to the local Lion's Den through the courtesy of the Dunsmuir, Yreka, Mt. Shasta City and Medford, Ore., Lion Clubs.

These four Lion's Den paid all the expenses concurrent to the making of these beautiful films, and the Upland Club is much indebted to the Northern clubs for the loan of the picture. The fact that a number of the Upland and Ontario Lions were featured in the pictures made them still more interesting.

Coming Back

According to Mack Sennett, famous as the man who sets the style for screen beauty, the perfect 34 is coming back and the slim 28 is going out. Simply cant help but admire that man Sennett for the perfect 34 with her curves always did appeal to us.

CHAFFEY- POMONA WILL PLAY GAME ARMISTICE DAY

BIG BATTLE IS PROMISED FANS OF THIS SECTION FOR HOLIDAY

Through Courtesy of Pomona High School Officials Game Has Been Brought Forward One Day

Armistice Day promises to be a big football day for residents of this section, as on that day Chaffey will entertain the Pomona High Cardinals in a regular fixture. The game has been brought forward one day from its originally scheduled date, and instead of being played Friday the 12th of November, will be played Armistice Day, the 11th. As Armistice Day is generally observed as a holiday by most all places of business, this will give a number of clerks and artisans an opportunity to see a big game, and one that may decide the championship of the league, or at least make a three-cornered tie of it.

Changing the date of the game was accomplished thru the courtesy of the Pomona High coach and High School officials and is greatly appreciated by Chaffey Union.

BABY SHOE FOUND AT POST OFFICE

A pathetic little white baby sho hangs on the steel bracket of the stamp window in the local post office and some place in town is a mother who wonders where her active rogish baby could possibly have kicked off his or her shoe The wee little shoe that recently snuggled a pink baby foot looks lonely, and on seeing it that little nursery rhyme flashes through ones mind:

My son John
Deedle deedle dumpling, my son John,
Went to bed with his stockings on;
One shoe off and one shoe on
Deedle deedle dumpling my son John.

FONTANA ODOR TO BE STOPPED, SAYS OFFICIAL

Court Action Threatened By Irate Residents of Bloomington—Many People Have Been Made Ill From Odors

Assurance that the Fontana Farms Company would correct an unpleasant situation said by residents of Bloomington to be making their nights and days hideous was made to the Board of Supervisors today by A. B. Miller, official of the company.

The Supervisors have received numerous complaints from people living in that community that the odors drifting from a hog farm maintained in connection with the Fontana Farms have been so obnoxious for the past several weeks that a number of persons have become ill and that life is anything but pleasant for the remainder of the district.

Mr. Miller told the Supervisors that the condition could be remedied by the drying and grinding of the material causing the odor and that his company would use this method from now on.

Contract for the furnishing of sprinkler equipment for the grounds about the new county courthouse was awarded by the supervisors today to the Booth Company of Riverside, who bid $2431. Bids for approximately 110,000 gallons of gasoline to be purchased by the county during the year were opened today. An average price of approximately 15 cents a gallon was quoted by the Union Oil Company, the Pan American Oil Company and the Standard Oil Company. The bids were taken under advisement.

FIFTEEN CARLOADS COTTON SEED MEAL TO ARRIVE HERE

Thirteen Hundred Tons Bean Straw Hauled Here by W. E. Allen For the G. A. Hanson Fruit Company

Within a few days there will come rolling nito Upland fifteen carloads of cotton seed meal from south-eastern cotton seed mills and will be delivered to the G. A. Hanson Fruit Compa

Cotton seed meal is considered one of the most valuable tre plant foods in existence and citrus fruit growers here who ha used it consider it an excellent investment.

The Hanson Fruit Company has just about completed the delivery to growers here of 1300 tons of bean straw to be used on the local groves.

H. C. Everetts of the Hanson Company returned Wednesday from several days' survey from San Fernando north to Santa B bara and finds the supply of bean straw practically exhausted and states that the largest tonnage of bean straw ever used on citrus acreage has been moved this year, the price being decidedly attractive.

200 PHEASANTS FOR WEST END

Tomorrow 200 Chinese Ringneck pheasants will arrive here and under the supervision of the Izaak Walton Club will be distributed in the district south of Ontario and east of Chino. Members of the club were looking for a location to release the birds yesterday and it is thought that the Pine ranches will probably b selected.

Last week a shipment of 500 pheasants arrived at Colton and were distributed in that sectio and the Mohave River district near Victorville.

CHAS. V. BARR IS ROTARY SPEAKER

"The Market or the Exchange of This Country," Mr. Barr's Subject—Octets of Varied Numbers On Program

"The Market or the Exchange of This Country," was the subject of Chas. V. Barr, President of the First National Bank, when he spoke before the Upland Rotary Club on Tuesday.

Mr. Barr explained that today the Pacific Coast Exchange dealt largely in oil and perishables and since mining had become a thing of the past in this district this coast had not an exchange which compared with those at Boston handling wool, at Chicago handling wheat and at St. Louis dealing in fur. Mr. Barr also e plained that the exchange was not always located where the commodity dealt in was consumed for although Minneapolis was a wheat consumption center Chicago was recognized the world over as a wheat exchange.

Future trading in grain and cotton centered largely around New York, the most interesting commodity in all exchange business being May wheat. The success of an exchange and the basis on which it is quite largely built is the cost of a seat, which runs from $100,000 to $150,000, the seats being sold to individuals and not to corporations.

Song Fest

Tuesday's program was quite largely made up of singing. First came the octet of a dozen or more then the rest of club and finally wound up with all of Ontario's visitors singing to the delight of the listeners.

A vocal by Chas. Walker of the Ontario Power Company was greatly appreciated. During the absence of Music Master John D. Howe, J. L. Grahame has been presiding. Mr. Howe will return from the Legion Convention a Philadelphia within a few days.

ESCAPES DEATH BY NARROW MARGIN; GAS PIPE BREAKS

STARTS CAR IN GEAR AND IS PINNED AGAINST WALL

A. E. Tucker Saved From Death As Broken Gas Line Shoots Deadly Fumes About Him With Deafening Roar

Instant action on the part of Ed. Thudium and Harvey Halder man late Tuesday afternoon not only saved the life of A. E. Tucker but prevented an explosion that would have rocked the entire business section of the city and probably wrecked the rear end of The Upland News plant as well as the shoe shop of Mr. Tucker, and the rear of the Wilson Pool Room.

In starting for home Mr. Tucker found that the battery of his car refused to turn over the starter. Cranking it by hand the car was in gear and leaped toward him, not only pinning him against the wall of his shop but breaking off an inch pipe carrying natural gas.

Cries of "Help, Help" were heard by Thudium and Halderman, employed in the Klindt Grocery and they rushed from the store to the rear of the Tucker shoe shop where they found Mr. Tucker pinned against the building by his car and with the broken gas pipe pouring the deadly gas all about him with a thunderous roar.

Mr. Tucker was soon extricated from his dangerous position and warning spread to all those in the neighborhood to keep their distance and refrain from striking matches or starting their cars.

The gas company was notified and a crew was rushed to the scene to repair the broken pipe.

Mr. Tucker is today slowly recovering from the shock and an injury to his leg.

BOYS' CHORUS AT CHAFFEY TONIGHT

Ernest Douglas, Master Organist, To Appear With Boy Choir On Musical Program At Auditorium

The concert by Mr. Ernest Douglas, master organist, and his Boys' Chorus at Chaffey tonight will be a musical treat.

The fact that a generous share of the proceeds will go to the Christmas Charity Fund of the Chaffey Girls' League adds to the interest of the evening.

The advance sale of tickets has been excellent, but good seats are still available for those who come in season tonight.

The Girls' League, which is hostess this evening, will serve dinner to the musicians before the concert. The dining room at Chaffey will be brilliant with the Chaffey callors, and Hallowe'en decorations will prevail.

Miss Ida Vernon, president of the Girls' League and Miss Dorothy Thacher, committee chair are arranging the details of the dinner, and Mrs. Winifred Johnson and Mrs. Susan Mehl are co-operating in the plans.

The concert program will be varied and interesting. It will include selections from great orchestro and other compositions, organ selections by Mr. Douglas, and songs in a lighter vein by boys.

The hour for the program 8:15.

Miss Helen Ferris was a passenger on the California Limited yesterday enroute to Galesburg, Ill., where she will visit relatives and friends.

California Eden For Artists

(Pasadena Star-News)

California lures unto itself some of the world's most famous landscape and marine artists. Well it may. There is here an abundant opulence of scenery. In truth, an artist might duplicate here any scene to be found from the tropical regions up to the borders of the Arctic.

Where shall one begin to enumerate all the scenic attractions of California, which delight the soul of the artist? One may begin down below sea level—that topographical marvel, Death Valley, or the Imperial Valley—lying below the level of the sea, and ascend to the crest of Mount Whitney, more than 15,000 feet. And even beyond the mountain height, into the sun-glorified clouds, or into the opalescent sunrise or sunset skies.

There are quiet valleys. Meadows. Pastures, with horses, or cattle, or sheep. There are picturesque poultry farms. There are glowing orchards. There are teeming grain fields. There is fleecy cotton.

And swinging away from the quiet pastoral, there are the rugged derricks and the forests of paraphernalia in the oil fields where man, in strenuous way works his will at the expense of the rich subterranean deposits. There are busy factories and bustling marts in the cities. There is shipping in the ports. An almost infinite variety of scenes to depict busy modern commercial life.

And the mountains! Why, there are single counties in this state that have greater mountain expanse than the whole of Switzerland! The Alps in California. Mountain peaks, canyons, gorges, waterfalls, forests of giant trees, lakes, rivers—why, it is bewildering to contemplate them all, from the heights of San Diego county to far Shasta in the north—ranges and peaks that entrance the eye.

And the ocean—what a fairyland for marine painters, from the Mexican border, along Coronado's romantic surf, by picturesque La Jolla, Laguna and Balboa, to the scenic beaches of Los Angeles, Ventura and Santa Barbara counties; Morro Beach, with its towering castle of rock; Monterey and Carmel and the cypresses and thrilling seascapes; on up to the Golden Gate, and far up to the Oregon line—hundreds of varying views to keep a master artist busy a lifetime.

And the "Big Trees"—another treasure-chest of Nature for the artist. California is bounteously rich in scenery for artists, and many come here and put on canvas scenes that may be found in the leading salons and art galleries of America and Europe.

Bed and Board

(Redlands Facts)

E. M. Statler, one of the most successful of American hotel men, harrassed by the work of supervising his various interests, remarks:

"When I first started to work I was given my meals and a place to sleep, and that's all I am getting today."

Many a big captain of industry feels the same way about it. The more successful a man is, the more the job tends to become his boss. Added possessions may mean little. A millionaire can eat only one meal at a time and wear one suit of clothes at a time and sleep in one bed at a time, and a poor man can do the same thing.

Wealth does, no doubt, bring a greater sense of power; and strong men like to wield power. But there is something terrible about the power which a great fortune nowadays wields over its owner. Oftentimes it is the fortune that owns the man.

The fundamentals of life are about the same to everybody. It is men's imaginations that make a great gap between high and low, rich and poor.

An Extract From

"Salvaging Civilization"

An Essay by G. Stanley Hall

The young are the best material for prophecy, for, as they go, the world will follow two decades hence. The young best know what love is—best feel what it can do. Thus the supreme question which the zeitgeist puts up to young people today is to decide whether they wish most to give or to get; to serve mankind or to exploit it; whether they will choose the career where they can do most good tomorrow or take the job that pays the best today; whether they follow the precepts of Stirner and Nietzsche, which teach us to maximize our ego, or those of Kropotkin, which teach mutual aid; whether they prefer the cut-throat methods of competition, too prevalent in busness, or the co-operative methods by which science, the other great institution of the modern world, has been built up. Both individual and group selfishness must be transcended, and nothing less than a new dispensation of service and a new enthusiasm for humanity must be instituted. This will begin not by concerted and organized movement without, but can take its rise only within the soul of each individual man who dedicates himself to service, and has penetrated to the great secret of the human heart, that it is more blessed to give than to receive.

The Two-Day Week End

(Santa Ana Register)

Many say that in adopting the five-day working week, Henry Ford made a virtue of necessity. He had not been operating on a six-day basis for several months. Apparently his plants can supply the demand for his product without working on Saturday.

How long will it be before the same thing is true of American industry in general?

Our national capacity for industrial production has grown tremendously, and is still growing. Labor-saving machinery makes the human factor less and less by comparison. Or to look at the situation from the other end, every man, by the use of the mechanical facilities given him, can produce more and more per day.

Will there be general over-production unless the working week is shortened? That depends on whether consumption grows along with production—whether people want the things they make as fast as they make them.

Perhaps it boils down to a question of thrift. Society as a whole can go ahead producing all it is capable of, and thus have more and more goods to divide and more wealth to pile up. Or society can renounce the accumulation of further wealth in favor of greater leisure and ease. Or society can adopt a middle course, continuing to "get ahead" moderately, while taking things a little easier.

Stealing Automobiles Should Be Difficult

(San Bernardino Sun)

There has been a great increase in the number of automobiles stolen in Chicago. The police of that city report that 75 percent of stolen cars are recovered. This sounds like good police work, but it is deceptive. The police themselves say that the great majority of cars taken are picked up by boys for joy rides or others for temporary use and are abandoned. They naturally fall into the hands of the officers. If more than 50 percent thus come back of their own volition and 25 percent are never recovered, it leaves less than 25 percent that are actually recovered through official action. That is mighty small and reveals a very faulty system of handling the whole matter.

It ought to be impossible for a man to steal an automobile and sell it. Ownership and transfer of ownership should be so regulated that nobody could use another machine wrongfully for any length of time and especially could not sell it. The police of Cincinnati say that some boys in that city are stealing machines and selling them for a song. Five youths confessed to taking between forty and fifty cars and selling them as low as $2 each, just to get a little spending money. That could never happen under proper regulation.

A Highway To Unity

(San Bernardino Telegram)

That was a memorable thanksgiving service recently held at Ironwood, Michigan. Two thousand men, women and children, representing numerous creeds and many nationalities crowded the largest auditorium and gave thanks for the rescue of the 43 miners who had been entombed in the earth five days. Catholic and Protestant, native born and foreign born, sat side by side and sang and laughed, cried and prayed together. Priest and preacher spoke from the same platform and the unity of the gathering was good to see and inspiring.

After all, is there anything that so breaks down barriers of prejudice, creed and caste, as human need and the ministry thereto? The highway to unity is the heart-path. Thus long ago a wise man wrote: "Keep thy heart with all diligence, for out of it are the issues of life." The sight of human suffering makes all the world akin. For lessons in human brotherhood and gratitude we all might profitably pilgrimage to Ironwood these days.

Student Waiters

(Pomona Bulletin)

In hundreds of schools and colleges now, boys are earning part of their expenses by waiting on table. The job seems to be popular. At Princeton University, 92 of them applied for such positions this fall, but there were only 51 jobs.

In former years some boys were too proud to do what they would have called servant's work. But they have learned better now. They have found out that an education is worth a lot of work, and that any labor well done is always creditable.

They also might be informed that it is some job to be a good table waiter. It calls on a fellow to be deft and quick and neat, and anyone who has had that training has accomplished something toward acquiring practical ability to do things. So hurry up, boys, and get that piece of pie, and fill up the doughnut plate!

Cucamonga-Alta Loma News

Service Club Enjoys Musical Treat

A very pleasing innovation at the weekly meeting Monday evening of the Cucamonga Service Club at the Sycamores, was the delightful musical program arranged for their entertainment by Messrs. James Black, of Upland, and George Ferguson, of Alta Loma, the entertainment committee for that evening.

Guests of the club at dinner were the following artists, all of whom generously responded to hearty encores, and whose program of songs and readings was one of the outstanding of the club season:

Mr. Archie Moore, accompanied by Mrs. Moore, sang delightfully "The Hunter's Hailoo" and "The Bass Viol."

Readings by Arthur Boone, of Upland, were highly appreciated, his selections being, "The Arkansas Preacher" and "The Negro Drayman."

Mrs. George Ferguson, in charming soprano solos, "The Slave Song" and "What Aloha Means," proved an exceedingly popular number, as did also the sparkling whistling solos, "Carnei" and "Blue Bird is Singing," by Miss Frances Huntoon of Pasadena.

Especially pleasing also was the duet by Mrs. Ferguson and Miss Huntoon, who whistled the bird accompainment to Mrs. Ferguson's rendition of "Caroline."

Messrs. Ord Toomey and James Black both favored with several of their popular tenor solos.

Following the program, James Sharp president, collected in fines all the available surplus cash from members present before adjourning the meeting to the new clubrooms of the "Cuca-Loma Junior Service Club" in the old Kincaid Building on San Bernardino Road, which was open that evening for inspection, after being nicely remodeled and all the necessary athletic apparatus installed for the needs of the boys. An impromptu program was staged, each service club member being assessed 10 cents apiece, to witness some extra thrills in way of some boxing matches, as put on by Messrs. Sharp and John Klusman, and Kenneth Hunter and Wilbur Minor. Virgil Davis proved himself the champion shot present in shooting at the mark, 10 cents per shot, all monies going toward the Junior Club.

Next Monday evening, president Sharp announced, will be "Stunt Night," with every member coming prepared to give some stunt or two toward the entertainment of the evening. The first Monday evening meeting in November will be an open meeting, when members may bring their wives, or friends as guests, and the entertainment for the evening will be in the hands of Messrs. Leigh Thompson and Gordon Billings, who are planning to present a specially good speaker that evening.

The Chart that makes Your Check Book Smile

THIS simple diagram tells a story far more interesting to you than any possible explanation of the technique of making and selling electricity.

It is interesting because it affects the family budget.

The average cost of electricity is now 8 per cent lower than in 1914.

The average cost of everything else, from apples to zithers, is 65 per cent higher.

That's all there is to the case. No oratory—no editorial—no pamphlet can change these facts.

GIRL RESERVES HOLD FIRST MEETING—

Miss Lind in turn introduced Mrs. Kenneth Hanson who gave a brief interesting talk on the "Organization of Girl Reserves," and chairmen of the various committees, numbering Mrs. Hanson, membership committee, Miss F. Hartley, social committee, Mrs. D. Nissley, publicity committee, Mrs. Earnest Dart, ring committee and Mrs. Genung, service committee.

As National Girl Scout week has been set for October 23 to October 30 inclusively, the following special activities have been planned by the Chaffey Girl's Work Organization. A letter will be sent to every Scout Mother in the district asking her for her cooperation and assistance to make this auspicious week a success.

During this week the girls are expected to render special services in their homes. Each girl scout is to arrange some special pleasure for her father and mother. On Wednesday October 27th each girl will be asked to plan and prepare the dinner for her family. These services will be reported by the girls to their captain, the teachers, mothers and business girls who are freely giving of their time, often at a great sacrifice of their own personal pleasure, energy and strength.

These leaders realize the possibilities offered by scouting for development of leadership, initiative, character, team work, health habits home interest and community responsibilities.

While the celebration of Girl Scout week does not exploit the girl in any way, it gives her the idea and opportunity to work some of the responsibility that will be hers some day.

MANY PLANS ARE MADE FOR PRESS CONVENTION TO BE HELD HERE NOV. 5

E. P. CLARKE IS TO BE MAIN SPEAKER

Over Two Hundred High Schools and Junior Highs Will Be Represented—Mr. Clarke Will Tell About Congress From the Press Gallery

Mr. E. P. Clark, editor of the Riverside Press, will be the main speaker at the semi-annual Southern California High School Press Association Convention to be held at Chaffey two weeks from tomorrow. Mr. Clark was president of the State Board of Education for sixteen years and a newspaper man in California for forty years. He started his first paper in Ontario.

Over two hundred schools have been invited to attend the convention. Although only a few replies have been received, many more are expected next week.

A feature of the convention is the newspaper contest, in which the school papers are judged. Due to financial differences all schools can not be judged on the same basis. This gives rise to a system of classifying. Class A consists of schools with enrollment of less than 700. Class B consists of those of 700 to 1799. In Class C are all over 1800. Class D is for Junior High Schools and Grammar Schools.

Another duty of the convention is to elect the officers for the coming year. At the last convention Chaffey was elected President; Manual Arts, Vice President; Pasadena High, Secretary and Hollywood High, Treasurer The president of the convention is the host to all the other schools

Each school has the privilege of sending two voting delegates for each publication, both the annual and the paper, and as many non-voting delegates as they wish. The delegates each have one vote and elect the officials for the coming year. A charge of $1.[illegible] is made for the voting delegates and fifty cents for each non-voting delegate. The money thus raised is used to defray the expenses of the luncheon and convention.

Committees have been selected to take care of Chaffey's guests and make their visit pleasant. The Junior College will take charge of the noon luncheon; the Girls League will take charge of the checking of wraps; and the Campus club will show the visitors around the Campus.

J. C. QUARTET ENTERTAINS AT BANQUET

The quartet, composed of Dorothy Dee Rollins, Eileen Skillman, Kennette Whitman, and Mark Goldman, and under the splendid direction of Mrs. Grace Huebner, is already charming its listeners at the beginning of what promises to be a very busy season.

A great deal of credit is due Mrs. Huebner for the splendid work she is doing in the violin department at Chaffey.

CITRUS SCHOOL TO HOLD THREE DAY MEET HERE

A three day Citrus Extension School will be held at Chaffey October 27, 28, and 29, in order to present to citrus growers, ranch managers, and all persons interested in citrus culture the facts gathered by the College of Agriculture, University of California, in regard to the citrus industry.

Dean Booth of the Junior College will give a valuable report on the Chaffey fertilizer, experiments with an explanation of the results the second day of the school. H. G. Wilder, farm advisor, will lecture on, "Soil Moisture Work in San Bernardino County." Various lectures and discussions concerning pruning, soil management, stocks, top-working, irrigation, fertilization, and other topics relative to the citrus industry will be held.

The session will also include two field tours through groves in this vicinity. This will enable those interested to make practical observations of various citriculture methods.

DEAN JAQUA IS SPEAKER ON MONDAY

Dean Jaqua of Pomona College was the speaker at last Mondays combined assembly of High School and Jaysee students. Dean Jaqua expressed his appreciation of the stress that has been placed on music throughout the high schools and colleges of the present day.

Honor and honesty were emphasized very strongly by the speaker as two very essential factors in the building of character. This point was illustrated by the story of an old man whom everyone could trust in the most minute detail. Dean Jaqua pointed out also that to become successful and efficient in any profession a man must be honorable and trustworthy.

In connection with the discussion of honor the Dean spoke on alibis. "Never use an alibi for the football team," emphasized Dean Jaqua, "even though some of its members are sick or the field happens to be in a poor condition." Such examples of courage as displayed by Homer and Caesar were stressed because these men although physically unfit, succeeded far beyond other more fortunate men in the same line of endeavor.

"I hope and pray," said Dean of Pomona College, in closing "that you young people will build an atmosphere of honor honesty and courage while in school, for those will be the people who can be relied upon in later years.

Typical Spanish Dinner Is Enjoyed By Class

To prove that Spanish food is just as appetizing and nourishing as that of America, Miss Newby's fourth year Spanish class gave a banquet in the Model Flat, Wednesday, October 22. Those on the committee in charge of the dinner were Elaine Alexander, Gertrude Bond and Nathan Dubin. Louise Beattie was head of the program committee.

As might be surmised, the menu was the most important item of the evening. Hot tamales and potatoe chips made up the heavier course, whils as an hors d'oeuvres, small helpings of potato salad, sardines, bologna, and beets were served. The last course consisted of ice cream and small pastries. Although the food was a little stronger than most of the guests had been accustomed to eating, no one is reported ill today.

The principle number on the program was a duet, La Golandrina, sung in Spanish by Melba Paxon and Louise Beattie. This song is typical of Spain and was very appropriate for the occasion Gertrude Bond then played several piano solos, after which the class sang many of the favorite Spanish songs.

Freshmen Are Challenged To Try Skill In Sack Rush; Next Thursday Is Big Day

Rivals Will Pit Their Strength In First Sack Rush In History of Chaffey—Rules Are Decided Upon

All doubt that Chaffey Junior College is an exceedingly collegiate institution will be dispelled a week from today, October 28, when the Sophomore class will attempt to show its superiority over the Frosh in a "sack rush supreme" that is to be held on the Chaffey athletic field.

The rush is a new idea at Chaffey but it is expected to create an abundance of class spirit that has been sadly lacking in Jaysee.

At a meeting of the executive boards of the two classes in Mr. Booth's office last week the rules for the contest were decided upon. It was agreed that there should be twenty-six participants, including a captain, on each side. Twenty-five sacks, stuffed with sawdust, will be placed across the field at regular intervals on the fifty-yard line. The two teams will then line up, the sophs on one forty-five yard line, the frosh on another. At the signal to begin the two teams will dive for the goal lines. The class having the largest number of sacks at the end of the playing period will be designated winner. If a man gets possession of a sack on the opening rush and starts toward the goal any man from the opposite side may tackle him and attempt to relieve him of his burden. But in order to score for his team, he must carry it back to his own goal. Tackling is permissable only when a man is carrying a sack, blocking in order to give a man with a sack a clear path will be considered illegal. For slugging and unnecessary roughness the penalty will be the removal of the offender from the game.

All the boys participating are requested to wear overals, old work shirts, and tennis shoes. The Freshmen will be designated by a band of green ribbon on the left arm, the Sophomores by a band of maroon and gold.

Because of the fact that a number of J. C. boys are bus drivers, faculty has allowed the busses to stay. Thus all students will have the opportunity to see the fun.

SWANNIE'S SHOP HAS CONTRACT FOR '27 PHOTOS

Chaffey Students Are Prominent at Redlands

The Chaffey students that are attending Redlands University are making fine records. Everett Chaffey, who was a member of the graduating class of '23, is completing his Junior year at Redlands. Everett is a member of the debating team and also belongs to the Alpha Gamma Nu Fraternity. Among other former Chaffey students attending the University are many Chaffey leaders. Robert Johnston, who graduated from Chaffey College last year is a Junior at the University. Pauline Smith, who graduated from J. C. in '24, and was president of the Junior College Student Body, is now completing her Senior year at Redlands. Celia Merril, who was the assistant editor of the J. C. Thrasher, is also attending the Redland University.

To Citrus Growers who want to increase their returns

THE Exchange, through its 201 local packing associations and 23 district exchanges, is in continuous communication with every citrus producing district. Its 59 national sales offices keep the Exchange constantly informed of market conditions everywhere. No other organization has comparable facilities for marketing California citrus fruits.

BECAUSE everybody uses the postal facilities the government can maintain a first-class service and deliver a letter anywhere in the United States for as little as two cents.

To send a Christmas card to each of the 3646 wholesale fruit buyers in the country would be a simple task for anyone having an accurate list of their addresses.

But if 3646 greeting cards were divided among ten people and each addressed and mailed his cards without direction or consultation with the others, some buyers would probably receive 10 cards and many would certainly receive none.

The same thing happens in an agricultural industry when a number of marketing agencies each attempt to independently distribute a portion of a perishable crop without knowing the plans of the others. While some markets are undersupplied the others are unintentionally overloaded. In either case the producer suffers.

It is not the fault of the shippers—it is due to the "blind man's buff" method and the absence of a system for correlating all shipments.

The only way the citrus growers of California can realize the maximum returns on their fruit is by distributing all of the crop through one central organization.

Fortunately, in the California Fruit Growers Exchange, California citrus growers have such an agency, founded 33 years ago for this very purpose. The fruit of 201 local packing associations is now intelligently distributed through this central organization. Thus 75 per cent of the crop is marketed in an orderly way.

The Exchange systematizes distribution but encourages competition in production. The Exchange grower who produces a superior grade of fruit, or the Exchange association that turns out a better pack is rewarded by the premium price to which he, or it, is entitled. Each gets whatever the fruit will bring, less only the actual cost of selling.

Eleven thousand growers, three out of every four in the state, have found this method most profitable.

They confidently believe that all growers will profit as a larger share of the California crop is marketed through the Exchange.

And that with the Exchange, as with the postal service, increased use means even better service at even lower cost.

You too can increase your returns by utilizing this co-operative marketing association. Ask your neighbors who belong to the Exchange how they value its services. Talk to the manager of the nearest Exchange association or District Exchange. Or write for further information to California Fruit Growers Exchange, Box 530, Station "C," Los Angeles.

Oranges Sunkist Lemons

THE California Fruit Growers Exchange is a non-profit organization of 11,000 California citrus fruit growers, producing about 75% of the California citrus crop, operated by and for them on a co-operative basis. Its object is to develop the national and international market for California oranges, lemons and grapefruit by concerted effort, and to provide a marketing organization that will sell the fruit of its members most advantageously and at the least expense. Receipts from sales, less only the actual costs of operation, are returned to the growers. Only California citrus growers are eligible to membership. Applications are received through all of the Exchange's 201 local packing associations, or at the central office in Los Angeles.

GENERAL MOTO-CRAT GASOLINE

Fill up your tank with General "Moto-crat" Gasoline and head for your pet hill—the one you have always wanted to get up in high but have never been able to make. That will tell you more about gasoline in ten minutes than you have learned in years of driving.

Here's what you'll find out—

You'll go farther in high because you'll have a noticeable increase in power.

No fuel knocks. Less crank-case dilution.

You'll get a noticeable increase in gas-miles.

At the end of the run your spark plugs will be clean—your valves unpitted.

General "Moto-crat" Gasoline means lower transportation cost.

Here's why these things are true—

General "Moto-crat" Gasoline is highly volatile. Every drop vaporizes instantly and burns completely. That's where you get your greater power, quicker start in any weather and quicker pick-up.

This gasoline is the result of years of effort to produce the perfectly balanced motor fuel. Gas-miles have not been sacrificed for additional power.

No acids, sulphur—free from knock-producing compounds. That's your clean motor at the end of the run.

Your General Independent Dealer has General "Moto-crat" Gasoline for you. It costs no more than others.

Don't forget—"It's the end of the run that counts" with lubricants. Fill your crank case with General Parabase Motor Oil [Para4rd for Fords]. They're sound motor insurance.

Troubles Not Over

C. S. Summers, erstwhile promotor of the U. S. Petroleum Company and the Acme Holding Company here and who was bound over to the superior court some months ago on a charge of embezzlement because of the financial state of the latter concern, but later released, is again in difficulty, according to word received by local officers, which is to the effect that he is being held by Angel City authorities.

While the exact nature of the present charge has not been learned, it is understood that Summers was arrested recently in Texas and extradited to this state.

The promoter was, at the time of his residence in this district, in charge of the oil drilling operatons on the Daniels Ranch in the Chino section. The failure of his company to pay the employees engaged in the drilling led to their filing suits with the state labor commission and many of the ranchers who had leased land to the oil concern were obliged to take legal action to quiet title to their property and cancel leases.

On a previous occasion, Summers was apprehended near Seattle and brought here for trial, which resulted in an acquittal of the charges pending against him at that time.

Puts Beane In Can

When Burris Beane, 19-year-old Oklahoma Indian youth, who was arrested Tuesday by Chief of Police Arthur Axley and Patrolman Paul Houghton on a charge of larceny, appeared before Judge George R. Holbrook Wednesday morning, the court ordered him to spend the next thirty days in the county jail at San Bernardino. The young Indian who was charged with being one of three youths who stole a fumigation tent from a grove near here last August, admitted that he was a member of the trio at the time the tent was taken but denied taking any part in the theft, insisting to the court that he made futile attempts to keep his companion from committing the crime. Judge Holbrook, however, held that Beane was an accessory to the fact and accorded him a 30-day sentence.

Halleck Harnage, another member of the party who was arrested at the time the tent was stolen, confessed his part in the crime when he appeared in court last August and is now serving a 90-day sentence in the county jail. The third youth has not yet been apprehended.

Meeting Called Off

Due to the fact that the plan of the American Legion to hold a mass meeting at the Chaffey auditorium for the purpose of explaining the various propositions on the November ballot has been viewed with groundless suspicions on the part of certain individuals, who have intimated that it might be a partisan affair, H. A. Cramer, commander of the local post, has announced that the mass meeting has been called off.

This action was taken at a regular meeting of the executive committee held this week, with reference to the move made by the Legion in this regard Commander Cramer said: "The plan for the mass meeting received the enthusiastic support and approval of the majority of the citizens whose advice we sought. However, a few suspicious individuals immediately thought that the American Legion was trying to influence voters, and others were afraid that the speakers obtained would endeavor to use their influence for or against some proposition and that the meeting would get out of our hands. The American Legion never has and never will tell anyone how to vote.

"The Legion has only one object in election matters and that is to impress upon the American people their duty and obligation as citizens. Rather than have a wrong impression regarding our motives in the proposed mass meeting, it was decided to dispense with it. However," added Cramer, "we urge each and every citizen to carefully study their sample ballots and be sure to vote on November 2."

One More Meeting

That the public advisory committee of the eighth grape district of California will, in all probability, hold one more meeting this season was the announcement made Tuesday, following what was expected to have been the last meeting of the year.

Next Monday, October 25, a meeting will be held in Fresno for the organization of a State grape advisory board. The five members of the eighth district committee who have been selected to attend are J. A. Barlotti of the Italian Vineyard Company; J. C. Jones of Etiwanda; John McClure of Burbank; Charles Latimer of Ontario; L. A. Weller of Cucamonga.

F. A. Lucas of Cucamonga was named as alternate delegate.

Boy—"Ma, there's a man down stairs who wants to see you about the furniture."

Mother—"Tell him to have a chair, I'll be down in a minute, dear."

Boy—"I did, but he says he came for the piano."

Cast For "The Gypsy Trail" Is Announced By Coach; Splendid Talent Is Shown

R. Farrell, L. Robinson, E. Pittinger, M. Frost, W. Wilson, K. Callow and C. Munson Will Take Main Parts

Dramatic talent galore was present at last week's play tryouts. And out of all this wealth of material Mrs. W. H. Kegley has chosen seven of Chaffey's most talented actors, who will make "The Gypsey Trail" the best J. C. play possible. Practically everyone who was assigned a part has had some previous experience in dramatic productions.

Mercedes Frost, a Freshman, has been awarded the "lead" in every high school play for which she has tried out. She has remarkable stage presence and a very clear and distinct voice.

Kenneth Callow is another Freshman who is bringing talent into Junior College. He shared honors with Mercedes last year when they were the twins in "The Goose Hangs High."

Edith Pittinger, still another Freshman is rather new to Chaffey audiences, but has a great deal of promise.

The rest of the cast includes Robert Farrell, Lois Robinson, Wesley Wilson, and Caroline Munson, who are all sophomores. Robert Farrell did an outstanding bit of work last yeas as Jay Van Pelt, the leading character of "High Finance." He is extremely good in character parts.

Lois Robinson is probably best remembered for her work as "Nerissa" in "The Merchant of Venice." Wesley Wilson and Caroline Munson have fine records and will add a great deal to the succes of the play.

The parts these people portray this year are all well suited the several individuals. Mrs. Kegley has spent a great deal of time in order to be sure that she was making the best possible choice.

The cast, as announced by Mrs Kegley is as follows:

Frank Raymond.....Robert Farrell
Miss Janet Raymond, his sister.....Lois Robinson
John Raymond, his small son.....Edith Pittinger
Frances Raymond, his daughter.....Mercedes Frost
Edward Andrews, her fiance.....Wesley Wilson
Michael.....Kenneth Callow
Mrs. Widermore, the grandmother..Caroline Munson

FROSH TO PICK COLORS, MOTTO AT MEETING

At the recent Freshman class meeting held in Conference Hall during the noon hour, a number of important matters were brought before the newly organized group.

Andy Wilkison, class president, presided and explained the coming struggle for the victory of the sack-rush. Men were asked to sign up for this event and also for the tug o' war which is to follow the first affair. It was announced that the women would be the rooters for the defenders of the class honor.

Wendal Moore, Virginia Jones, Mary Lehigh, Donald Roe, and Hayden Collins were appointed on a suggestion committee to report on possible class colors and a class motto. This report will be made at the next class meeting.

MRS. HORNBURG ENTERTAINS ENTRE NOUS CLUB—

Members of the Entre Nous club enjoyed a delightful afternoon yesterday, when they were guests of Mrs. H. C. Hornburg at her home on West Tenth street.

A profusion of Autumn blooms added to the attractiveness of the spacious rooms and the afternoon passed all too quickly, with dainty needle work and social visiting.

A business session preceded the social hour and it was decided at this time to hold the regular meetings but once a month and the date was set for the last Thursday of each month. With social meeting interspersed throughout the month.

Mrs. Hornburg served a delicious tea to her guests at the close of the afternoon and among those present were Mrs. G. W. Eckerman, Mrs. Gus Anderson, Mrs. W. H. Andrews, Mrs. W. H. Tuttle, Mrs. Miles Harnly, Mrs. Charles Tyler, Mrs. F. B. Harn, and the Misses Ethel Leeke and Mina Ruesink.

G. T. CLUB ENJOYS DELIGHTFUL EVENING—

Delightful informality marked the meeting of the G. T. Embroidery Club last evening when they were guests at the home of Mrs. Charles O. Deverts on First avenue.

Baskets of fragrant pink and white roses, were used by the hostess in attractive decorations and a discussion of current topi featured the evening.

At a late hour Mrs. Deverts assisted by Mrs. Charles Allen, served a delicious collation on dainty trays to her guests. Among those enjoying Mrs. Devert's hospitality were Mrs. H. O. Blohm, Mrs. Charles Allen, Mrs. J. F. Hamilton, Mrs. Fred Wilding, Mrs Mark Bailey, Mrs. L. O. Bowman and her house guest, Mrs. W. C Bowman of Frisco, Texas; Mrs. E R. Son, Mrs. Edward Lutz, Mrs. C. BENEFIT TEA FOR FREE-BED FUND—

Mrs. Benton Ballou has loaned the use of her beautiful home, 119 Princeton avenue, Ontario, to members of the San Antonio Community Hospital Auxiliary, for the benefit tea that will be given for the hospital Free Bed Fund on November 2nd, at two-thirty o'clock.

Mrs. W. F. G. Blaikie, who is chairman of the free bed committee and her able assistants have planned an interesting program for the afternoon, Mrs. Earle S. Blakeslee, who with Mr. Blakeslee recently returned from Italy, where they spent several months studying music, will be the speaker of the afternoon, and a number of clever musical numbers will be heard. A Silver Tea will be served at the close of the afternoon and a cordial invitation is extended to all the people of the community to attend.

The free bed fund is one of the most essential funds, established last year, and if the public could only be made to understand how very necessary this fund is, in no time such a fund would be forthcoming.

Frequently people who have no money at all, apply at the San Antonio Community Hospital, for medical attention and care, and even to the unanitiated the fact remains, that without a free bed fund, such help cannot be given. Sad is it to think that any one in pain, any one in need, should have to go uncared for, owing to the fact that the only hospital in the community has no facilities to take care of them.

The Benefit Tean on November 2nd is being given for the purpose of increasing the sum needed to maintain the Free Bed Fund.

LODGES TO STAGE JOLLY PARTY—

Witches and goblins, and a real fortune teller are just a few of the many novelities that will feature the old fashioned Hallowe'en party that will be given next Thursday evening, by members of the Royal Neighbors and Woodman's lodges at their lodge rooms on Second avenue.

The spacious hall will be tractively decorated for the occasion and quadrills and other old fashioned dances will be introduced during the evening.

Members of the refreshment committee are planning special refreshments, in keeping with the Hallowe'en season and a cordial invitation is extended to all members and their friends to come and make merry.
